Holistic and Structured Approach

Experience has taught us that no one-size-fits-all and therefore without even thinking of recommending a product, what we do as the first step is to understand your financial goals, risk profile, time horizons and emotional behaviors. Personalized service is essential when matching clients with the right products and services. We sometimes also work with some of our clients to understand the dynamics of risks and returns, so as to give them the right perspective and expectations, and arrive at realistic financial goals.

Long Term Relationship

We do not just show you the way, but be with you through out. Goal based financial recommendations are provided and the “run-rate” of the client is monitored periodically and action taken only if there is a need to do so, to ensure achievement of goals on time. Therefore, if your goals involve purchasing a first home, financing college degree, or planning for retirement, Financial Radiance works with you in making the best decisions for your money

The Right Ingredients

We put our qualifications and experience into practice. Professional qualifications i.e. MBA (Finance) from JBIMS, Mumbai and a CFP with 21 years of rich work experience in leading Indian and Multinational finance companies are put to use while working on the customized personal financial strategies for you.
